

SUICIDE

THE RIPPLE EFFECT

A film and movement for hope and healing, set for world wide release, on March 13th, 2018.

At age 19, Kevin Hines attempted to take his life by jumping from the Golden Gate Bridge. Seventeen years later he is on a mission to use his story to help others find hope and stay alive. This film is part of a global mission to help reduce the number of suicides and suicide attempts around the world. Through sharing stories of survival and recovery we are creating significant awareness of this health crisis, while helping people find the support they need to stay alive, heal and #BeHereTomorrow!

"This film shows my journey to better understand the effects of my suicide attempt on my family, friends and the first responders who saved my life." says Hines "My hope is the film will get people talking so those struggling can find ways to connect and heal"

"This film will save lives" Dr John Draper - Director National Suicide Prevention Lifeline USA
